Ditties from the Director:

Hello Everyone:

Well spring has arrived (or maybe we skipped it and went right to summer).

I had a great time with the Meriden parade participants, couldn't have asked for better weather on Saturday.

Hope to see as many of you as possible on May 20, 2010 at the Volunteer Breakfast. Please call if you have not gotten your invite and have put volunteer hours in this past year. We seem to be having problems with the postal system this year and some invites were not received. It is not too late to add you to the list.

Also I have once again included time sheets for you to use. Quite a few have been returned, so this seems to be the best system.

Thanks for all you do,
Diane
